

benefits and facts

Some useful information and facts about what you can expect as part of a summer placement scheme, as a student or as a trainee at HBJ Gateley.

benefits and facts

Summer placement schemes

- paid four week placements;
- experience two areas of the law in practice; and
- the majority of our training contracts are offered to successful summer placement students.

As a future trainee

Having accepted our offer of a training contract you will receive:

- the benefit of the firm checking your Diploma progress and providing support if needed;
- advice on Diploma electives;
- access to library services;
- relevant office information as it arises; and
- an invitation to all appropriate social events immediately prior to joining.

As a trainee

You will:

- receive a rewarding salary;
- be entitled to 25 days holiday each calendar year plus eight statutory holidays per year;
- be entitled to Death in Service benefit – currently four times annual salary;
- take part in our mentoring scheme – you will be entitled to have your own mentor;
- have the opportunity to become a member of our contributory Group Personal Pension Scheme;
- receive sponsorship for your Professional Competency Course (PCC) fees (From August 2012, PEAT 2 Fees);
- receive training through departmental legal training programmes;
- gain experience and training in up to four seats;
- be appraised in the middle and reviewed at the end of each seat; and
- have exposure to clients and hands-on work with full support from trained supervisors.

Training contracts

- up to ten vacancies with various disciplines on offer; and
- minimum criteria are:
 1. to have (or expect to obtain) a 2:1 honours degree (or have passed or are expected to pass the accelerated LLB Course).
 2. to have held some form of responsibility in fifth/sixth year, university or work.

Sponsorship

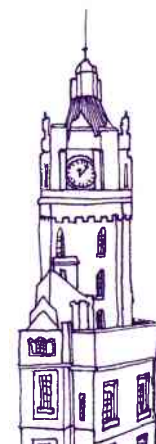

- PCC fees paid (From August 2012, PEAT 2 Fees).

Finding out more

For more information about our summer placement scheme and/or a training contract, visit our website.

We welcome applications through our website:

www.hbjgateley.com/careers

Birmingham
Edinburgh
Glasgow
Leeds
Leicester
London
Manchester
Nottingham
Dubai

www.hbjgateley.com